IN THE DISTRICT COURT

OF HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

____ JUDICIAL DISTRICT

PLAINTIFF SILVIA MARTINEZ'S ORIGINAL PETITION, REQUESTS FOR DISCLOSURE AND RULE 193.7 NOTICE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, SILVIA MARTINEZ, hereinafter referred to as Plaintiff, and files this lawsuit against TYSON FOODS, INC., hereinafter referred to as Defendant, and in support thereof, for cause of action would respectfully show this Honorable Court as follows:

I.
DISCOVERY AND DOCKET CONTROL

1.1 Plaintiff requests that Discovery be conducted under Level II of TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE. Plaintiff hereby requests that the parties to the lawsuit be permitted to enter an agreed docket control order to schedule the deadlines of the instant action.

II.
PARTIES

2.1 Plaintiff, SILVIA MARTINEZ, is a resident citizen of Houston, Harris County, Texas.

2.2 Defendant, TYSON FOODS, INC. is a foreign for profit Corporation doing business in the State of Texas, and may be served by serving CT CORPORATION SYSTEM, 1999 Bryan Street, Suite 900, Dallas, Texas 75201.

III.
JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3.1 This Court has jurisdiction in this matter because the damages to Plaintiff are within the jurisdictional limits of this Court.

3.2 All or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred in Harris County. Therefore, venue is proper pursuant to §15.001 and §15.002(a) (1) of the TEXAS CIVIL PRACTICE & REMEDIES CODE.

3.3 All other conditions precedent to the filing of this suit have been met.

IV.
FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4.1 This case arises from an on the job injury caused by the negligent acts of the Defendants. Nothing Plaintiff did caused or contributed to this occurrence.

4.2 On or about October 24, 2015, Plaintiff Silvia Martinez was involved in a serious injury-producing incident, wherein she was caused to suffer injuries to her both legs and ankles. At the time of this injury-producing incident, Ms. Martinez was working at the Tyson Foods, Inc. at 300 Portall Street in Houston, Texas. At the time of this incident, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant and was in the course and scope of her employment. While preparing to end her shift, she was caused to slip and fall down a flight of stairs that were poorly lit and had no handrails. As a result of her injury, Plaintiff has been forced to undergo months of medical treatment for the fractures sustained to both of her legs and ankles.

V.
NEGLIGENCE CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST
DEFENDANT TYSON FOODS, INC.

5.1 Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. was the employer of Plaintiff Silvia Martinez and responsible for the safety of Plaintiff. At all times material to this lawsuit, Plaintiff was an employee of Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. and was acting within the course and scope of her employment with Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. As a non-subscriber to the Texas Workers Compensation Act, Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. is deprived of certain common law defenses including, but not limited to, asserting any comparative fault of Plaintiff, Silvia Martinez.

5.2 The independent conduct of this Defendant constitutes negligence. Such negligent acts and omissions include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. failing to provide a reasonably safe place to work;
- b. failing to provide the proper equipment or tools for Plaintiff on the date of her injury;
- c. failing to properly assess the work place where Plaintiff was required to work for danger;
- d. failing to provide adequate lighting in the stair well at the time of Plaintiff's injury;
- e. failing to provide the necessary equipment, including hand rails in the stair well, for Plaintiff to perform her job safely;
- f. failing to act as a reasonable and prudent employer under the same or similar circumstances;
- g. failing to adhere to Texas Labor Code § 411.103, DUTY OF EMPLOYER TO PROVIDE SAFE WORKPLACE. Which states that each employer shall: (1) provide and maintain employment and a place of employment that is reasonably safe and healthful for employees; (2) install, maintain, and use methods, processes, devices, and safeguards, including methods of sanitation and hygiene, that are reasonably necessary to protect the life, health, and safety of the employer's employees; and (3) take all other actions reasonably necessary to make the employment and place of employment safe, and

h. in such other ways to be shown at or before the time of trial.

5.3 The foregoing acts and omissions, singularly and collectively, on the part of this Defendant constituted negligence and such negligence was a proximate cause of the occurrence made basis of this suit and Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

VI.
GROSS NEGLIGENCE OF
DEFENDANT TYSON FOODS, INC.

6.1 Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. was grossly negligent in failing to provide a reasonably safe place to work as required under the laws of the State of Texas. Defendant Tyson Foods, Inc. grossly negligent conduct was a proximate cause of Plaintiff's injuries and damages.

6.2 The conduct of this Defendant, which when viewed objectively from the standpoint of this Defendant at the time of its occurrence, involved an extreme degree of risk, considering the probability and magnitude of the potential harm to others. This Defendant had actual, subjective awareness of the risk involved, but nevertheless proceeded with conscious indifference to the rights, safety and welfare of others. Consequently, this Defendant's conduct constitutes gross negligence. Such gross negligence was a proximate cause of the occurrence and Plaintiff's resulting injuries and damages.

6.3 This Defendant's acts and omissions constitute gross negligence. Such grossly negligent acts and omissions include, but are not limited to the following:

- a. failing to provide a reasonably safe place to work;
- b. failing to provide the proper equipment or tools for Plaintiff on the date of her injury;
- c. failing to properly assess the work place where Plaintiff was required to work for danger;
- d. failing to provide adequate lighting in the stair well at the time of Plaintiff's injury;
- e. failing to provide the necessary equipment, including hand rails in the stair well, for Plaintiff to perform her job safely;
- f. failing to act as a reasonable and prudent employer under the same or similar circumstances;
- g. failing to provide and maintain employment and a place of employment as is required in Texas Labor Code § 411.103, DUTY OF EMPLOYER TO PROVIDE SAFE WORKPLACE that is reasonably safe and healthful for employees; install, maintain, and use methods, processes, devices, and safeguards, including methods of sanitation and hygiene, that are reasonably necessary to protect the life, health, and safety of the employer's employees; and take all other actions reasonably necessary to make the employment and place of employment safe, and

h. in such other ways to be shown at or before the time of trial.

6.4 Plaintiff would show that the foregoing acts of gross negligence on the part of the Defendant, either collectively or singularly, caused the injuries and damages suffered by Plaintiff and that same constituted gross negligence.

VII. DAMAGES

7.1 As a result of the negligent acts of Defendants, Plaintiff Silvia Martinez incurred necessary hospital and medical expenses and will continue to incur medical expenses in connection with said injuries for an undetermined length of time in the future.

7.2 As a direct and proximate result of the negligence of Defendants, Plaintiff Silvia Martinez suffered severe injuries and extreme physical pain, suffering and mental anguish, physical incapacity and in all probability, Plaintiff Silvia Martinez will be forced to endure physical pain, suffering, mental anguish and physical incapacity for an undetermined length of time and probably for the remainder of her life. In the incident made the basis of this suit, Plaintiff suffered serious and permanent fractures to both of her legs. Plaintiff was forced to undergo extensive medical treatment in order to treat the injuries sustained. Plaintiff Silvia Martinez continues to require ongoing medical treatment and in reasonable probability will continue to require medical treatment for the rest of her life due to the permanent nature of her injuries.

7.3 All damages sought by Plaintiff Silvia Martinez include damages that were sustained in the past, and that, in reasonable probability, will be sustained in the future. Plaintiff Silvia Martinez seeks both pre-judgment and post judgment interest as allowed by law, for all costs of Court, and all other relief, both at law and in equity. Therefore, Plaintiff Leal will seek to recover all damages allowed by law, not to exceed $2,000,000.00 including any damages to compensate her for the following:

- a. all necessary medical care expenses in the past;
- b. all necessary medical care expenses and assistance that, in reasonable probability, Silvia Martinez will sustain in the future;
- c. physical pain and suffering in the past;
- d. physical pain and suffering that, in reasonable probability, she will sustain in the future;
- e. mental anguish in the past;
- f. mental anguish that, in reasonable probability, Silvia Martinez will sustain in the future;
- g. physical impairment in the past;
- h. physical impairment that, in reasonable probability, Silvia Martinez will sustain in the future;
- i. disfigurement in the past;
- j. disfigurement that, in reasonable probability, Silvia Martinez will sustain in the future;
- k. any and all necessary, long term care and assistance in the future; and
- l. punitive damages.

VIII. EXEMPLARY DAMAGES

8.1 Defendants' actions and violations described above constitute gross negligence pursuant to Texas statutes and ordinances that govern safety in the workplace. Plaintiff would further show that, collectively and singularly, Defendants' conduct constitutes gross negligence and conscious indifference as those terms are defined and interpreted under Texas law. As such, Plaintiff is entitled to recover and hereby sue for the recovery of punitive damages to punish Defendants and to deter similar future conduct.

8.2 Further, Plaintiff Silvia Martinez alleges that her injuries were directly and proximately caused by the gross negligence, conscious indifference and utter disregard for the safety and welfare of the Plaintiff on the part of the Defendants. Plaintiff Silvia Martinez requests that the award for this wrongdoing be a reasonable amount that would deter Defendants and others from committing like offenses and wrongs in the future. Plaintiff alleges that if each of the acts of negligence set forth did not independently constitute gross negligence, then certainly all of the acts of negligence, combined and in the aggregate, constitutes gross negligence and were the proximate cause of the Plaintiff's injuries and resulting damages.

8.3 Plaintiff alleges that the provision within Section 41.008(b) of the TEXAS CIVIL PRACTICE AND REMEDIES CODE limiting the amount of exemplary damages assessed against Defendants to two (2) times the amount of economic damages plus an amount equal to any noneconomic damages found by the jury, not to exceed $750,000, or $200,000, whichever is greater, is unconstitutional, as it violates:

- a. SECTION ONE OF THE FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, which guarantees due process and equal protection;
- b. ARTICLE ONE, SECTION THREE OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which guarantees equal protection of the laws;
- c. ARTICLE ONE, SECTION THIRTEEN OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which guarantees access to open courts for every person for an injury done him, and that each such person shall have remedy by due course of law;

- d. ARTICLE ONE, SECTION NINETEEN OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which guarantees due course of law;
- e. ARTICLE TWO, SECTION ONE OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which prohibits any one of the three branches of government from exercising any power properly attached to either of the others, specifically, prohibiting the legislature from exercising power properly attached to the judiciary;
- f. ARTICLE THREE, SECTION FIFTY-SIX OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which prohibits the legislature from passing any local or special law authorizing limitation of civil actions; and
- g. ARTICLE ONE, SECTION FIFTEEN, AND ARTICLE FIVE, SECTION TEN OF THE TEXAS CONSTITUTION, which guarantee the right to trial by jury in civil cases.

IX.
REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

9.1 Pursuant to Rule 194, of the TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, request is made that each Defendant disclose, within fifty (50) days of service of this request, the information or material described in Rule 194.2 (a)-(l). X.
RULE 193.7 NOTICE

10.1 Plaintiff hereby puts Defendants on notice that Plaintiff intends to use Defendants' discovery responses as evidence at trial in accordance with such right and privileges established by TEXAS RULE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE 193.7.

XI.
JURY DEMAND

11.1 Pursuant to Rule 216 of the TEXAS RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE, Plaintiff respectfully request and demands a trial by jury.

XII.
PRAYER

12.1 WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Plaintiff prays that the Defendants be cited to appear and answer herein as the law directs, and that upon final hearing, and that Plaintiff have and recover judgment of and from the Defendants not to exceed $2,000,000.00 pursuant to the above and foregoing allegations in such amounts as hereinabove set out and as the evidence may show proper at the time of trial, together with interest thereon at the legal rate, costs of Court, and for such other and further relief, both general and special, at law and in equity, to which Plaintiff may be justly entitled.

DEFENDANT TYSON FOODS, INC.'S ORIGINAL ANSWER

Defendant, Tyson Foods, Inc. ("Defendant"), files its Original Answer and states the following:

I.
GENERAL DENIAL

1. Defendant denies each and every, all and singular, the material allegations contained within Plaintiff's pleading and demands strict proof thereof.

II.
SPECIAL EXCEPTION

2. Defendant specially excepts to Plaintiff's Original Petition and Requests for Disclosure in its entirety because Plaintiff has pled for the recovery of monetary damages but has failed to specify the total amount of damages which they seek to recover pursuant to the specific requirements of Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 47(c). Further, a party that fails to comply with Rule 47(c) may not conduct discovery until the party's pleading is amended to comply. Defendant requests that, after notice and hearing, the Court sustains this special exception and order Plaintiff to re-plead and identify with specificity the total amount of damages in
